

Contents

THE CHALLENGES OF WRITING ABOUT MOVIES .....	1
WHAT IS ACADEMIC WRITING? .....	1
Constructing an Informed Argument 2
Consider What You Know 2
Consider What You Think 2
Summarize 3
Evaluate 4
Analyze 4
Synthesize 5
Finding a Rhetorical Stance 5
Consider Your Position 6
Consider Your Audience 6
Using Appropriate Tone and Style 7
KINDS OF FILM PAPERS .....	8
Formal Analysis 8
Film History 9
Ideological Papers 10
Cultural Studies/National Cinemas 10
Auteur Criticism 11
THE PROCESS OF WRITING ABOUT MOVIES .....	11
Choosing a Topic 12
Viewing Films 12
The Advantages of DVDs 12
Taking Notes 13
Annotating Shot Sequences 14
Plot Segmentation 15
Generating Ideas 15
Conversation 16
Brainstorming 16
Freewriting 17
Discovery Draft 17
Five Ws and an H 18

- Tagmemics 19
- Aristotle's Topoi 19
  - Use Definition 20
  - Use Comparison 20
  - Explore Relationships 20
  - Examine Circumstances 20
  - Rely on Testimony 21

Focusing Your Ideas 21

- Nutshelling 21
- Broadening Your Topic 22
- Narrowing/Focusing Your Topic 23
- Thinking Beyond the Frame 24

Researching Film 25

- Understanding Primary and Secondary Sources 25
- Using Sources 25
  - Summarize Your Sources 25
  - Categorize Your Sources 26
  - Interrogate Your Sources 27
  - Make Your Sources Work for You 27
- Keeping Track of Sources 28
- Citing Sources 28

Developing Your Thesis 29

- Writing a Thesis Sentence 29
- Alternatives to the Thesis Sentence 30
  - The Thesis Question 30
  - The Implied Thesis 31
- The Thesis Sentence Checklist 31

Considering Structure and Organization 32

- Organizing Your Thoughts 32
  - Let Your Thesis Direct You 32
- Sketching Your Argument 33
- Outlining Your Argument 33
- Constructing Paragraphs 34
  - What Is a Paragraph? 34
  - What Should a Paragraph Do? 34
- Writing the Topic Sentence 35
- Developing Your Argument: Evidence 36
- Developing Your Argument: Arrangement 37
- Coherence 37
- Introductions and Conclusions 39
  - Introductions 39
  - Conclusions 40

Attending to Style 41

- Basic Principles of the Sentence 41
  - Focus on Actors and Actions 41
  - Be Concrete 42
  - The Exception: When to Use Abstract Nouns 43
  - Be Concise 43
  - Be Coherent 44
  - Be Emphatic 46
  - Be in Control 46
  - Write Beautifully 47

REVISING: CULTIVATING A CRITICAL EYE ..... 47

Why and How to Revise 47

Developing Objectivity 49

Analyzing Your Work 51

PROOFREADING AND FORMATTING ..... 52